- 1) The target odour is cloves. The scent article may be of any material shown to hold the scent.
- 2) All searches are "area" searches - the hide may be anywhere within the marked area, but will be positioned such that it is easily accessible to dogs of all sizes.
- 3) Searches will have one hide, apart from the games.
- 4) 20 points for each correct 'find'.
- 5) Points will be deducted as follows:
  - a) Eliminating in the ring: 25 points.
  - b) Calling more than one "false alert": 5 points.
  - c) Rewarding with food or toys in the ring: 5 points.
  - d) Destructive behaviour in the search area: 5 points
  - e) Swallowing the scent article: 5 points
  - f) Handler touching items/surfaces in the search area: 2 points

- 6) The running order will be displayed from the start of the trial.
- 7) At the beginning of the search the judge will tell the competitor how many hides are hidden and the maximum allowed time.
- 8) The timer will start as soon as the dog's nose passes through the markers.
- 9) The dog may work on lead, off lead, or some of the search on and some off. (on lead is advised for external searches)
- 10) The handler may take their dog out of the search area to reward their dog after each find. For beginner dogs, the timer will be stopped. For Intermediate dogs the timer will not be stopped.
